JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION

When the case was called for hearing, Counsellors David N. Katiah and Vincent Smith of the Alliance Consultancy Group, Inc. appeared for the movant. Counsellor Kojoe N. Ross of the Primus Law Group appeared for the respondent.

The movant, the Intestate Estate of Rachel Quellerh Crottaz, filed a motion to dismiss the respondent's appeal due to its failure to file an appeal bond and notice of completion of appeal in the time allowed by law.

That following the notations of party's representations and by leave of Court, the counsel representing the respondent made a submission as follows:

"At this stage, the counsel for the respondent concedes to the legality and the soundness of the motion to dismiss the appeal announced by the respondent/appellant."

It is the law in this jurisdiction that "all admissions made by a party himself or by his agent acting within the scope of his authority are deemed admissible." Civil Procedure Law, Rev. Code:1.25.8(1).

Hence, this Court says that the counsel for the respondent having conceded on the records to the movant's motion to dismiss its appeal, and the movant having interposed no objection, it is hereby

ADJUDGED:

That the motion to dismiss the respondent's appeal is granted and the prayer contained in the motion is hereby granted.

The Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a Mandate to the court below commanding the judge presiding therein to resume jurisdiction over this case and enforce its final ruling of December 23, 2024. Costs are ruled against the respondent. AND IT IS HEREBY SO ORDERED.
